CONCEPT NOTE

The Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 was enacted on 28.05.2016, hails as a major economic measure with an objective to align the Indian insolvency law at par the international standards. The Code envisions a consolidated framework relating to reorganization and insolvency resolution of corporate persons, partnership firms and individuals in a time-bound manner for the maximization of value of assets of such persons/entities and to promote entrepreneurship amongst others. The four pillars thus have been established for the fulfillment of the objective under the Code, which includes, Insolvency Professionals, Information Utilities, Adjudicating Authority, and the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Board of India.

Under the Code, the Indian insolvency regime has made great strides in providing a predictable framework that aims to provide timely, efficient and impartial resolution process of viable businesses and a transparent liquidation process.

The Centre for Advanced Research in Corporate Law (CARCL) in collaboration with Chambers of Abhinav Mishra (CoAM) aims to organize this Certification Course on Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC) 2016 providing valuable insights on the implementation of the Code, further, aiming to deliberate upon the effective mechanism to combat the complexities, grey areas, and loopholes involved therein. The course also involves discussions on the practical aspects involved qua career building in corporate commercial litigation.

OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE

Equipping participants with comprehensive understanding of both theoretical and practical aspects of IBC, 2016.

To get practical insights from the industry experts qua career in corporate & commercial litigation.

Delving into the interface of the corporate and insolvency laws and their role in economic development.

Understanding the nitty-gritties and provisions of the evolving law and its implementation mechanism.
