CALL FOR BLOGS

This blog seeks to foster intellectual discourse and research in business and taxation laws by publishing analytical pieces that drive significant developments in the discourse around corporate law. The focus is on practical outputs, legal solutions, and creative awareness to ease the hurdles in today's evolving business and regulatory landscape.

The Editorial Board welcomes submissions from legal practitioners, advisors, academicians, and law students on various areas of business and commercial law, including mergers and acquisitions, competition, banking, and insurance, among others, as well as contemporary topics like data privacy, fintech law, and white-collar crimes.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The Editorial Board requires that all submissions adhere to the following guidelines:

1. Use Garamond font, size 12, with line spacing of 1.5.
2. Maintain margins of 1.5 inches on the left and 1 inch on the right, with 1 inch on the top and bottom.
3. Citations should be hyperlinked within the document and the portion being referenced. The Board reserves the right to add additional links to sources relevant to the post.
4. Submissions should be a minimum of 1000 words and must not exceed 1500 words.
5. Co-authorship is limited to a maximum of two authors.
6. The manuscript should not contain the name of the author(s), institutional affiliation, or any other identification mark.
7. The author(s) are responsible for the accuracy of facts, opinions, or views stated in the submitted manuscript.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

- All manuscripts will be checked for plagiarism by the Editorial Board, and infringing, offensive, or plagiarized submissions will be rejected. A similarity index of 20% will be strictly adhered to for all submissions.
