About CNLU

Chanakya National Law University (CNLU) was established in the year 2006 with an altruistic aspiration of serving society by disseminating high-quality legal education and legal awareness. CNLU has garnered a Pan-India reputation as a stellar institution for legal research and education. CNLU strives to provide opportunities for students and research scholars to enhance their knowledge, practical nuances, and research skills through conferences, capacity-building series, guest lectures on contemporary issues revolving in collaboration with Central & State Statutory Bodies, Think tanks, and Research Centers, other National and State Educational Institutions, Law Firms, Trade Association, among others. These academic and legal discourse on contemporary, relevant topics is one of the essential aspects of learning to attain proficiency in the legal field.

About Legal Aid Cell

CNLU Legal Aid Cell with its motto Stand Speak Act was established in the year 2015 with the vision to ensure fair and meaningful justice to the marginalized and disadvantaged by bringing them legal awareness and aid. The main objectives of the Legal Aid Cell are to promote legal awareness throughout the State of Bihar, to provide pro bono legal aid to those who are in need, and to inculcate social responsibility which will lead to realization of goals embodied in the Constitution of India. CNLU Legal Aid Cell is further divided in 4 different center i.e., Consumer Rights Centre, Centre for Client Counselling, Centre for Legal Awareness Camps, Centre for Research on Cases.

About Vidhikta 2.0

Vidhikta is the confluence of two words 'Vidhik' and 'Sahayta'. 'Vidhik Shayata' or legal aid is the act of assisting those people who are in need of legal recourse but are dampened by financial constraints. Access to legal aid is essential for ensuring equal justice. With the second edition of our flagship event, Vidhikta 2.0 aims to target all those who belong to the legal fraternity. As being part of this noble profession, the main aim of every law student should be to offer a helping hand to those who are not aware of their rights and are often oppressed. Vidhikta 2.0 is going to give a platform to redefine legal aid. It is a platform to express, innovate and gain knowledge through jam-packed events with marvelous rewards and additional perks.

Other Collaborators

The Bihar State Legal Services Authority has been constituted to provide free Legal Services to the weaker sections of the society and to organize Lok Adalats for amicable settlement of disputes. It lays down policies and principles that frame the most effective and economical schemes for legal services in Bihar. In every District, a District Legal Services Authority is constituted to give effect to the policies and directions of the BSLSA.

Sama is a mediation services platform build in 2015 to provide a platform for Online Dispute Resolution. Its goal is to give a safe, quick, cost-effective, and humane approach of resolving disputes with real practical solutions. It has adopted a new way to resolve disputes between businesses and customers, employers and employees, landlords and tenants, professionals and clients, or anyone else in fully online, fast and cost-effective manner.

In House Support

The Centre for Advanced Research on Corporate and Insolvency Laws is a Centre of Excellence to facilitate the highest standards of research in Corporate Law, Governance, Insolvency, and allied laws in India. The Centre aims to provide a platform to carry out research projects, organize academic workshops, lectures, and conferences, conduct Faculty Development Programs etc., and work towards the advancement of Corporate and Insolvency laws in India.

The Chanakya Centre for Alternative Dispute Resolution has been established with the objective to promote academic research on themes pertaining to the resolution of disputes. It aims to develop a congenial environment for students and researchers to further their interest in ADR, which enables skill development and helps us compete at the national and international levels. CCADR will strive to promote different dispute resolution methods, get involved in the policy framework related to ADR, and encourage law students to take up activities in the field of ADR.

In Collaboration With Nyaya Bandhu

The Nyaya Bandhu (Pro Bono Legal Services) is the Government of India's primary initiative to establish a framework for dispensation of pro bono legal services across the country. Under the programme, practicing advocates, interested in undertaking legal pro bono work, are connected, via mobile technology, with eligible marginalised beneficiaries, after due scrutiny for delivery of pro bono (free of charge) legal services.

In order to strengthen the Nyaya Bandhu network, Department of Justice proposed to set up and integrate pro bono panel of lawyers in each High Court (curated and moderated by the respective High Courts), within its Nyaya Bandhu programme. It envisages integrating the Nyaya Bandhu programme within the institutional framework of the justice system in India, so as to ensure its optimum utilization and impact.
